Marx e Engels escreveram o Manifesto Comunista ainda relativamente jovens> Quando o Manifesto foi publicado em 1848< Marx tinha trinta anos de idade> Talvez o Manifesto seja o seu texto mais belo do ponto de vista literário< com metáforas surpreendentes e descrições sintéticas< próprias de um gênio> Mas isso não foi feito da noite para o dia> Engels deu as linhas mestras do texto< e Marx se responsabilizou pela organização do conteúdo< e principalmente< pelo estilo> Ele reescreveu o texto várias vezes< e por incontáveis tentativas de correção foi pinçando as melhores

palavras e sentenças> Quando ele e Engels terminaram o texto sabiam de antemão que haviam escrito um clássico da filosofia política>

Diferentemente de quando escreveram A ideologia alemã que acabaram por não publicar o Manifesto não foi feito com todo o humor que emergiu na outra ocasião> Não que Marx e Engels não se divertissem escrevendo> Sempre escreviam sem desprezar bons palavrões e gargalhadas transformando-os uma vez nos textos em boa ironia> Os poderosos ficavam irritados com isso pois sabiam que Marx tinha o dom de atingir pessoas simples sem que para isso tivesse de escrever de modo simplório>

É fácil saber a razão pela qual Marx escreveu bem> Não era exclusivamente por ter tido uma boa educação> Sua verve literária veio por conta do pé que manteve no Romantismo> O Iluminismo do século XVIII trouxe para ele sua missão de militante político revolucionário> Trouxe também seu apego à idéia de fazer uma espécie de ciência com aquilo que até então era filosofia> Todavia o seu lado de escritor poderoso é certo e veio do campo romântico>

Em que Marx foi um romântico> Não foi um romântico no sentido literário do termo e sim no modo como trouxe preceitos românticos para a filosofia e então em forma de sentimento os transmitiu para o texto do Manifesto> Dizendo de um modo mais correto sua união de iluminismo e romantismo foi responsiva pelo charme desse seu escrito>

A razão iluminista é finita> É razão propriamente humana e de homem sem mulheres e em geral é a que atribuímos nossa capacidade de organizar o mundo à nossa volta ou mesmo de mudá-lo> A razão romântica é infinita> É razão não humana do Cosmos ou do Mundo da Natureza ou de Deus> É uma razão maior que enfim está nas estruturas nas quais vivemos e então nos organiza ou mesmo nos transforma> Marx nunca decidiu por uma ou outra> Ora manteve-se dubio ora tentou conciliá-las> Sua interpretação da história foi sem dúvida um dos momentos em que procurou a conciliação>

A interpretação da história de Marx nos momentos em que buscou resumí-las apareceu como uma teoria que dizia que o homem era o agente e construtor da história, mas a o mesmo tempo o homem não era o construtor da história a o seu bel prazer tinha de levar em conta as “condições objetivas determinadas”> Esse enunciado de Marx exemplificam sua tentativa de dar a cada uma das concepções de razão a sua devida força> Que o seja o homem aquele que faz a história é uma idéia que concede à razão iluminista sua força transformadora, que a história seja feita sob condições objetivas determinadas é uma idéia que enxerga o poder maior das coisas e o seja da razão romântica>

Marx foi exatamente este pensador – iluminista e romântico> No Manifesto Comunista nos trechos em que estes românticos prevalecem a genialidade do Marx escritor salta aos olhos> É o que vemos no trecho em que expõe o papel do que denominamos burguesia>

É o trecho mais belo do Manifesto e sem dúvida uma das peças mais bem escritas de toda a literatura da filosofia política>

variados laços que prendiam o homem feudal a seus "superiores naturais" e ao despedaçou a piedade para só deixar subsistir de homem para homem o laço do frio interesse e as duras exigências do "pagamento à vista" > Afogou os fervores sagrados do êxtase religioso do entusiasmo cavalheiresco do sentimentalismo pequeno-burguês nas águas geladas do cálculo egoísta > Fez da dignidade pessoal um simples valor de troca, substituiu as numerosas liberdades conquistadas com tanto esforço pela única e implacável liberdade de comércio > Em uma palavra em lugar da exploração velada por ilusões religiosas e políticas a burguesia colocou uma exploração aberta, cínica, direta e brutal > A burguesia despojou de sua auréola todas as atividades até então reputadas veneráveis e encaradas com piedoso respeito > Domédico do jurista do sacerdote do poeta do sábio fez seus servidores assalariados > A burguesia rasgou o véu de sentimentalismo que envolvia as relações de família e reduziu-as a simples relações monetárias > ←MC←

A ideia básica desse parágrafo poderia ser resumida em uma frase também literariamente bela e profunda escrita mais tarde pelo sociólogo alemão Max Weber. A modernidade é a época do "desencantamento do mundo" > Aliás em termos de beleza e profundidade Weber cunhou também outra frase igualmente adaptável a esse parágrafo de Marx. o homem moderno é "o expert sem inteligência e o hedonista sem coração" >

Nos dois casos tanto de Marx quanto de Weber a assentença para descrever e avaliar os tempos modernos deixam transparecer um irônico e paradoxal sentimento de nostalgia pelo mundo de antes da modernidade > A ironia é de duplo âmago. é uma forma de fustigar o leitor que porventura se identifique com a burguesia para Marx ou que faça a apologia da modernidade para Weber > Amantes da modernidade Marx e Weber mostram que isso não os impede de serem seus críticos até mesmo nos acertos dessa nova época >

Marx escolhe as palavras que sabe que podem estar sendo idolatradas por aqueles mesmos burgueses que prezam o mundo medieval e feudal e que não conseguem ainda admitir que foram eles mesmos que destruíram o velho mundo > Os burgueses de todo tipo e mais ainda o que Marx chama de "pequenos burgueses" vivem adorando o passado o que seria idílico e com aura, então Marx mostra a eles que eles é que terminaram com esse mundo que agora parece a eles como conservadores algo que deveria ser preservado ou restaurado > Não é mais possível fazer voltar o que destruíram > Assim o texto é um só o nó está mago dos ricos e poderosos e mais ainda da classe média ao mostrar que todo conservadorismo moral deles é apenas hipocrisia > Duas frases com meias metáforas saltam aos olhos aqui neste exato sentido. primeira a burguesia destruiu as relações passadas e deixou apenas "o laço do frio interesse e as duras exigências do 'pagamento à vista'", e segunda. "a burguesia despojou de sua auréola todas as atividades até então reputadas veneráveis e encaradas com piedoso respeito" >

Que homem que pode surgir dessa situação não é aquele que se vangloria de ser não um sábio que fala sobre tudo e todos mas um especialista um expert > É assim o homem moderno > Ele não quer mais ser sacerdote ou filósofo, quer mostrar que de um determinado assunto ele entende > Tem sua utilidade no mercado exatamente por saber daquilo que o dinheiro diz que ele deve entender > "Expert" ou especialista — eis um nome que a modernidade idolatra > Weber não poupou. "expert sem inteligência" > E ao mesmo tempo que homem que pode surgir de relações frias "do pagamento a vista" senão aquele que apenas quer o gozo: o hedonista. Todavia não se trata do hedonista filosófico e sim do hedonista vulgar por isso Weber completa. "hedonista sem coração" > Sem coração no caso quer dizer. sem a devida harmonia de conduta do hedonista skbio que mais do que ninguém sabe preencher seu peito com gozos aproveitados de modo correto > Sem coração quer dizer. sem espírito >

Marx deixou para Weber o enunciado que é o creme do bolo da avaliação da "revolução burguesa" e do "advento do mundo moderno". "desencantamento do mundo" > É difícil não ver que este parágrafo do Manifesto Comunista pode ser batizado com tal frase weberiana > A perda da auréola e a emergência de relações que não são mais mascaradas por religião ou qualquer outro elemento similar é exatamente isso. o império de uma situação em que tudo pode ser tratado às claras > Em outras palavras. tudo pode ser considerado pela noção de explicação que mostra relações de causa e efeito ou pela compreensão que mostra razões > Essas razões para Weber não são argumentos são apenas descrições da racionalidade que adé quameiosa fins >

Marx e Weber estão como quem diz de modernos ou burgueses. são homens que saem de casa sem consultar oráculos astrólogos ou mesmo sem orar para qualquer deus pois a única coisa que os possibilita sair de casa é a consulta que fazem ao número de folhas de seu talão de cheque >

Essa é a possibilidade que o romantismo de cunho até mesmo conservador fornece a dois pensadores nada conservadores. o de ousarem estapear todos os ganhos da modernidade que eles não querem ver destruídos e sim ampliados e melhorados > A crítica romântica em geral foi uma crítica conservadora > Ela surgiu em oposição às modificações introduzidas pelo iluminismo > Marx e Weber sabem incorporar em metáforas e alegorias surpreendentes o espírito dessa crítica produzindo escritos que sem isso talvez viessem a soar apenas como panfletos iluministas e positivistas pouco agradáveis > Outros escritores da época ao contrário de Marx e Weber não souberam harmonizar iluminismo e romantismo e produziram escritos progressistas dogmáticos pouco afeitos à beleza literária que encontramos nesses dois alemães >
